Open House Event: 11 – 3 on August 17th, 2024

Join us for our tenth annual Private Collection Salon and Sale, featuring over 130 works by 68 of the most influential 20th-century and contemporary photographers. This curated exhibition will be on display at our Buckhead gallery, located at 3122 East Shadowlawn Ave, as well as in our online viewing room on our website jacksonfineart.com.

We will be offering sought-after icons by classic photographers including Ansel Adams, Henri Cartier-Bresson, Walker Evans, Irving Penn, and Richard Avedon as well as sold-out works by contemporary masters such as Nan Goldin, Alex Prager, Sally Mann, Mickalene Thomas, Marilyn Minter and more.

One of the offering highlights is a platinum palladium print of Richard Avedon's famous Dovima with Elephants, Evening dress by Dior, 1955.

Spotlight: We are thrilled to offer a curated selection of 30 works from the remarkable collection of St. Louis photographer and collector David Capes. His collection, which began in the 1990s, has grown to include iconic works by celebrated photographers such as Julie Blackmon, Man Ray, Lee Friedlander, Annie Leibovitz, André Kertész, Alfred Stieglitz, August Sander, and many others.

Curator Malia Schramm has been with the gallery since 1999 and specializes in secondary market consignments and sales.

“The concept for our Private Collections Salon & Sale exhibition was born a decade ago when we recognized that collectors sought a more intimate platform to sell works from their collections. Our thirty-plus years of experience in the photography market has given us a unique position, allowing us to facilitate connections between available works and new potential owners. Whether deaccessioning entire collections or selling a few pieces to make new acquisitions, collector’s evolving interests and collecting habits continue to fuel this annual exhibition that has grown into one of our most anticipated yearly events. - Malia Schramm”
